Renton's Fabulous 4th of July and Fireworks Celebration

Full entertainment, events, and food on July 4th at Gene Coulon Memorial Beach Park

Renton, WA – The City of Renton and event co-sponsor The Landing invite you to experience Independence Day from the shores of Lake Washington at Renton's Fabulous 4th of July. The event will be held at Gene Coulon Memorial Beach Park, 1201 Lake Washington Boulevard North.

The celebration will have something for everyone, including free children's activities and face painting from noon to 8:00 p.m., sponsored by Coal Creek Family YMCA and Walmart; the 2nd Annual Sand Blast Volleyball Tournament from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; stage entertainment from 12:30 to 9:30 p.m., sponsored by Sanctuary and The Reserve Apartments; and a professional fireworks display from the Ivar's Waterwalk at 10:00 p.m.

Ivar's, Kidd Valley, beachside concessions and espresso vendor "Zone 3 Explorers" will be available all day in the park. Attendees are encouraged to join the city in "greening" Renton's events by using the recycling receptacles in the park.

Park rules and event restrictions prohibit the following: personal fireworks, alcohol, pets, animals, enclosed tents, large barbecues and drones. Pop-up canopies (up to 10 x 10 secured with weights only, no stakes), small children's tents, umbrellas and umbrellas chairs are allowed. Personal fireworks are banned within the Renton city limits at all times. The ban will be actively enforced.
